Getting a License

Licenses in Florida are regulated by the state, but are issued by the County Clerk's office. There are Volusia County Clerk's offices in Daytona Beach and Deland. Most offices are open from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and no appointment is necessary.

If you or your spouse-to-be has been previously wed, you must provide a copy of the divorce papers indicating the date the marriage ended. Marriage licenses can be used statewide.

- Cost is $93.50 with completion of an approved marriage preparation course.
- Price can be reduced to $61 for Florida residents
- There's an additional three-day wait for Florida residents who don't wish to complete the course
- Applicants will need their social security number and valid driver's license or picture ID
- Non-US citizens may use passport for identification
- Bride and groom must be present at time of application

A Beautiful Setting For a Beautiful Day!

Capture the magic of your special day in the beautiful New Smyrna Beach area. Whether you plan an intimate wedding with a few close friends or nuptials with a larger number of guests, the area has much to offer.

A wedding in the New Smyrna Beach area proves the adage that good things do come in small packages.

After the Wedding

Of course, planning the honeymoon is one of the most important aspects of wedding preparation and New Smyrna Beach offers everything from quaint bed & breakfast inns to luxurious oceanfront condos.

Spend a day frolicking at the beach. Shop on historic Flagler Avenue or Canal Street. Browse through one of our many art galleries. Indulge in a couple's only spa treatment. Enjoy intimate dining at one of our many family-owned restaurants or share a decadent dessert at an old-fashioned soda fountain.

Take a historic boat ride or sunset cruise down the Indian River Lagoon and discover why it is the most biologically diverse estuary in North America. Cross the inlet to get an up-close and personal view of the Ponce de Leon Inlet Lighthouse, then climb the stairs to the top for spectacular views of the New Smyrna Beach area.

Honeymooning

HONEYMOON ACCOMMODATIONS

Beyond seemingly endless beaches and a one-of-a-kind laid-back charm, New Smyrna Beach is home to the honeymoon hideaway you've long envisioned. From national chains you know and love to idyllic B&Bs and romantic inns; from lavish luxury to beachside bliss and rustic retreats; from simple overnights to lavish honeymoon packages — if you can imagine it, it's here.

For all your accommodations, attractions, and travel needs, you can book directly at

BOOK YOUR HONEYMOON HIDEAWAY

National Chains with Coastal Charm

Staying with a time-tested friend can be reassuring. Take comfort in national brands you've already experienced: La Quinta, Hampton Inn – on Flagler Avenue, Best Western – on the ocean, and the new Marriott SpringHill Suites – on Flagler Avenue and the ocean.

National hotel chains such as Hampton Inn and Marriott SpringHill Suites have been built in the Florida Vernacular Architecture style – adding to the quaintness of these favored national chains in New Smyrna Beach.

Inn on the Avenue

Romantic Inns and B&Bs

Sometimes the pace and charm of times past set a comforting classic tone. The French Country Style Inn on the Avenue is intimate, beachside, and right on Flagler Avenue. And on Buenos Aires Street, you'll find the Salty Mermaid Boutique Inn – where world-class luxury meets quaint beach life.

Along Riverside Drive you'll find Night Swan Intracoastal B&B, with water views and modern coastal hospitality, plus Black Dolphin Inn, a grand waterfront estate, lovingly restored for today's discerning guests.

Riverview Hotel

Lavish Luxury

An artful blend of Victorian times and modern amenities, The Riverview Hotel & Spa dates back to 1885. A landmark on the Intracoastal, right off Flagler Avenue, and near the beach, it offers a marina, fishing, diving, 18 rooms, a world-class spa oasis, the waterfront The Grille at Riverview restaurant and bar, and seemingly endless amenities.

Beachside Bliss

Sea Coast Condominiums is but one of many short- or long-term residences available for rental on the 17 miles of New Smyrna Beach. Secure your furnished residence, bask on the balcony, and let the sound of the surf serenade you.

Sugar Mill Ruins

Rustic Retreat

If you opt for the simpler setting and choose to camp or stay in a cabin, trailer or RV, you'll want to plant temporary roots in Sugar Mill Ruins Travel Park. Near the beach, Intracoastal, golf, our namesake ruins, and the best of New Smyrna Beach, you'll enjoy the private fishing lake, and all the requisite amenities.

HONEYMOON FUN

Choose New Smyrna Beach for your honeymoon and you two are already ahead of the game. Here, good times rule the day. You'll find an unbelievable selection of active (and inactive) fun-in-the-sun options, good times going out after dark, hanging with the locals, even wandering back in time.

Hit the Cap: Water

Not to boast, but the NSB water scene is off the charts; our 17-mile beach is white and hard-packed so you can bike forever. Plus, you can hunt for shells, bask in the rays, get hypnotized by the surf, or tackle the waves. Try skimboarding, boogie boarding, surfing (East Coast's best), or kitesurfing. Kayak or stand-up paddleboard on the Intracoastal. Or visit our Marine Discovery Center, choose a tour, and witness dolphin, manatee, sea turtles, river otters, wild birds, and more in their natural (enviable) habitat.

Bird's-Eye Views

Try something surprising, unforgettable, and with a completely different perspective; go for an open-cockpit biplane tour. Departing from New Smyrna Beach Airport, the planes have room for two passengers so you and yours can enjoy it together.

Drive Like a Local

You'll notice right away, many of our locals opt to drive something other than cars around town, and on the beach. We invite you to do the same. Make your way to Salty Rentals where you can rent bikes, or four- or six-passenger golf carts. Also East Coast Bike Rentals - they deliver to you and pick up when you're done!

The Garlic

Do Yourself Some Flavors

Savor just-caught seafood while you watch the waves. Dine in the treetops at Norwoods, or enjoy a feast for every sense at The Garlic. Revel in the garden patios of Third Wave or Riverpark Terrace, or catch a live band or two on Flagler Avenue or Canal Street. Grab a slice of pizza, then a pint at a New Smyrna Beach Brewing Company. Won't take long for you to agree, our range of menus and cuisine styles belies our small town beach vibe.

Atlantic Center for the Arts

Time to Acculturate

Once you witness the talents showcased at Atlantic Center for the Arts, The Hub on Canal, and our many local galleries; once you delve into our past at the ancient Sugar Mill Ruins, Museum of History, and Sugar Mill Botanical Gardens; once you experience NSB's cultured side, it's clear why author John Villani included us in his book, "The 100 Best Small Art Towns in America: Where to Discover Creative Communities, Fresh Air, and Affordable Living".
